

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a dangerous example of media consolidation.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for their bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. It's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
